EXPEDITED REVIEW – TAX POLICIES

A. TAX POLICY -- INPUTS TO TANGIBLE PRODUCTS
Statutory criteria for evaluation	Notes
a. Reasons for tax policy	OPEGA definition of policy area:  “Exempts from tax items that are a component part, or considered integral to, production of a tangible product.” The provisions reviewed in this category include sales tax Purpose: To avoid double taxation by taxing as part of final product rather than also when each component part is purchased in the line of production. SAMPLE FROM PRIOR REPORT: The committee believes that reconsideration of this policy is not warranted at this time.
b. The extent to which the reasons for the adoption of this policy remain or whether reconsideration is needed	SAMPLE FROM PRIOR REPORT: The reasons for adoption of this policy continue. Reconsideration is not warranted at this time.
c. The extent to which the tax policy is consistent with other state goals	SAMPLE FROM PRIOR REPORT:: This policy is consistent with principals of avoiding double taxation. The reasons for adoption of this policy continue. Reconsideration is not warranted at this time
d. The past and future fiscal impact of the tax policy	The OPEGA report provides estimates for FY 18 through FY 23 for the revenue loss attributable to this tax policy (Table 3, p. 4) and

		each individual tax expenditure subject to review (Appendix A, p.21). The estimates are derived from information provided by Maine Revenue Services in its biennial tax expenditure reports. The estimates are prepared by Maine Revenue Services based upon state and local expenditure data from the U.S. Census Bureau, Annual Survey of State Government Finances as well as Maine state motor fuel tax returns. The estimated sales tax revenue loss attributable to this policy ranges from $276,385,000 in FY18 to $284,275,000 in FY 23. The estimates for tax expenditures covered by this report are based on estimated ranges of revenue loss because more specific information is not available.

B. TAX POLICY -- CONFORMITY WITH INTERNAL REVENUE CODE
	Statutory criteria for evaluation	Notes
	a. Reasons for tax policy	OPEGA definition of policy area:  “Conforms with federal income tax law.” The provisions reviewed in this category affect income tax. Purpose: Conformity reduces filing errors, increases compliance and keeps Maine taxes competitive with other states. SAMPLE FROM PRIOR REPORT:  : The committee believes that reconsideration of this policy is not warranted at this time.
	b. The extent to which the reasons for the adoption of this policy remain or whether reconsideration is needed	SAMPLE FROM PRIOR REPORT:: The reasons for adoption of this policy continue. Reconsideration is not warranted at this time.

	c. The extent to which the tax policy is consistent with other state goals	SAMPLE SIMILAR TO PRIOR REPORT:: This policy is consistent with principals of maintaining simplicity in tax filing and in maintaining competitiveness with other states. Reconsideration is not warranted at this time.
	d. The past and future fiscal impact of the tax policy	The OPEGA report provides estimates for FY 18 through FY 23 for the revenue loss attributable to this tax policy (Table 3, p. 4) and each individual tax expenditure subject to review (Appendix A, p.21). The estimates are derived from information provided by Maine Revenue Services in its biennial tax expenditure reports. The estimates are prepared by Maine Revenue Services based upon state and local expenditure data from the U.S. Census Bureau, Annual Survey of State Government Finances as well as Maine state motor fuel tax returns. The estimated sales tax revenue loss attributable to this policy ranges from $739,105,000 in FY18 to $917,455,000 in FY 23. The estimates for tax expenditures covered by this report are based on estimated ranges of revenue loss because more specific information is not available.

C. TAX POLICY -- NON-TAXABLE SERVICES
	Statutory criteria for evaluation	Notes
	a. Reasons for tax policy	OPEGA definition of policy area:  “Exempts services from sales tax.”

		The provisions reviewed in this category include sales tax These tax expenditures result from the structure of Maine’s sales tax which, by statute, applies to sales of tangible personal property and a few specified services, e.g. short term rentals of lodging, certain motor vehicle rentals)
	b. The extent to which the reasons for the adoption of this policy remain or whether reconsideration is needed
	c. The extent to which the tax policy is consistent with other state goals
	d. The past and future fiscal impact of the tax policy	The OPEGA report provides estimates for FY 18 through FY 23 for the revenue loss attributable to this tax policy (Table 3, p. 4) and each individual tax expenditure subject to review (Appendix A, p.21). The estimates are derived from information provided by Maine Revenue Services in its biennial tax expenditure reports. The estimates are prepared by Maine Revenue Services based upon state and local expenditure data from the U.S. Census Bureau, Annual Survey of State Government Finances as well as Maine state motor fuel tax returns. The estimated sales tax revenue loss attributable to this policy ranges from $2,130,005,000 in FY18 to $2,193,005,000 in FY 23. The estimates for tax expenditures

		covered by this report are based on estimated ranges of revenue loss because more specific information is not available.
