

Advisory Panel To Better Understand and Make Recommendations Regarding the Implications of Genome-editing Technology for the Citizens of the State

Wednesday, August 17, 2022

Time: 9:00 a.m. to 4:00pm

Location: Cross Office Building, Room 209 (Hybrid Meeting)*

*The meeting will be streamed live at the following link: <https://legislature.maine.gov/Audio/#209>

AGENDA

- I. [9:00am] Welcome and Brief Introductions
- II. Overview of Advisory Panel duties and background
- III. Purpose and Expectations/General Orientation
- IV. [10:30] Break
- V. [10:45] Introduction to Gene-editing Technology (Dana Waring Bateman)
- VI. [Noon] Lunch
- VII. [1:00] Presentations: Gene-editing in Health and Bioscience
 - Nirav Shah, MD, JD, Director, Maine CDC
 - Jennifer A. Jewell, MD, pediatric hospitalist, Barbara Bush Children's Hospital
 - Jonathan B. Zuckerman, MD, director MMC Adult Cystic Fibrosis Clinic
 - Abbie Hunnewell, person living with a single-gene disorder
 - Hon. Christina Riley, parent of a child with a single-gene disorder
 - Benjamin King, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Biology, UMaine
 - Laura Reinholdt, Ph.D., Associate Professor and co-Director, Genetic Resource Sciences, Jackson Laboratory
- VIII. [3:30] Debrief and Next Steps

Additional information and materials are available on the Advisory Panel's webpage at:

<https://legislature.maine.gov/genome-editing-technology-advisory-panel>