

§4402. -- appeal from superintendent's order

If the superintendent has issued a summary order before hearing as provided in section 4401, subsection 2, any person upon whom such order is served may waive the superintendent hearing and apply for any immediate judicial relief available under law and without first exhausting administrative remedies. Section 236 (appeal from superintendent) shall apply as to appeals from the superintendent's order made after hearing. [PL 1973, c. 585, §12 (AMD).]
