Senate called to order by President Richard A. Bennett of Oxford County.

Prayer by Reverend Glenn Palmer of the Maine Army National Guard.

REVEREND PALMER: I bring you greetings from your brothers and sisters in the Maine Army National Guard.

Let's bow our heads in prayer. Creator God, source of all goodness and hope, we lift up the family of Senator Joel Abromson this morning. We ask that You would weave a web of care and protection and comfort around his family. Hold them and all who suffer and grieve and mourn in this confused and hurting world in Your loving arms and sustain them and nourish them with the promise that in You, the God of life, that death is not the end. We ask that You, in and through the power of Your holy spirit, be present here in this body of the Maine State Senate this morning and that You would be with and for and in and near this body as they seek to do Your will in serving their God, their country, their state, their community, and their neighbor. We ask this in Your holy and precious name. Amen.

Three State House Station
Augusta, ME 04333

Dear Senator Bennett:

It is my honor and privilege to accept your invitation to address a joint session of the Maine Legislature on Friday, January 18th. For ten years, Maine has been the home of the Seeds of Peace International Camp Program. In the past decade, almost 2,000 teenagers have graduated from the Seeds of Peace International Camp in Otisfield, which brings together teenagers from regions of conflict, including the Middle East, Pakistan, India, Cyprus, Greece, Turkey, Bosnia, Croatia, Serbia, Kosovo, and Macedonia. Through the creation of open dialogues, team building, group projects and activities, and conflict-resolution sessions, these "seeds of peace" begin the difficult process of developing the mutual trust, respect, and empathy needed to break the cycles of hatred and violence.

Maine has been an invaluable partner in the Seeds of Peace mission. The state's idyllic setting and the continual support of the community has created a very special bond between our young people and Maine. We have also extended our program to include Maine teenagers, as American ambassadors at the International Camp Program, and, through the Portland Project, which brings together Portland youth of diverse cultural backgrounds, including African-Americans and immigrants from Rwanda, Kampuchea (Cambodia) and Vietnam.

We forget that we have as much, perhaps more, in common than separates and divides us. That is why Seeds of Peace believes in coexistence and in the common humanity that unites us. Maine has helped Seeds of Peace to weave the fabric of tolerance and understanding so that the next generation will lead us away from fear and hatred. With its unique partnership with Seeds of Peace, the state of Maine is helping to nurture the young people who will be the leaders of tomorrow.

I thank you for your support and commitment to Seeds of Peace.

Sincerely,

S/John Wallach
President and Founder

ORDERS

Joint Resolution

A Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

Henry Black, of West Baldwin, beloved husband of Helen H. Black, a member of the Maine State Senate serving District 25 from 1985 to 1988 and a selectman for the Town of Baldwin for 12 years. Mr. Black had operated the family business, Briarcliff Farms, since 1946. He was an active participant in many community and civic organizations, serving as a member of the Baldwin Grange, the West Baldwin Volunteer Fire Department and as a director at the Sacopee Valley Health Center. He was involved with the Cumberland County Extension, the Agri-Mark Co-Op, the Maine Farm Bureau, the Dairy Shrine and the American Jersey Cattle Club. He was particularly proud of his involvement with the Fryeburg Fair Association in which he was a longtime livestock superintendent. Mr. Black will be greatly missed by his loving family and many friends; SLS 589

Sponsored by President BENNETT of Oxford. Cosponsored by Representative: CRESSEY of Baldwin.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Sagadahoc, Senator Small.

Senator SMALL: Thank you, Mr. President, men and women of the Senate. The Senate has once again lost a friend and former colleague, Henry Black. I did not serve with Henry in the Senate although our Secretary, Secretary Cahill, did. I was in the House and I remember Henry as always being someone who spoke up for the issues that affected agriculture and farmers. I think he was considered a very great friend to all those people who sometimes aren't well represented up here. What I do remember about Henry was his ties that never seemed to quite cover his girth. As someone said, Henry had a heart as big as his waistline. He seemed to enjoy the fact that his ties only came about half way down and Pam said that he did that intentionally. I guess that will always remain the great mystery as to why. He was a good friend to many and I think he was widely respected on both sides of the aisle just for his fairness and his simple intent to do well for his constituents and for his community. For that, I don't think anybody could ask more. I would ask, Mr. President, when we adjourn today that we adjourn in memory of Henry Black.

At this point a message was received from the House of Representatives, borne by Representative COLWELL of Gardiner informing the Senate that the House concurred with the proposition for a Convention of the two branches of the Legislature to be held in the Hall of the House at 12:40 in the afternoon for the purpose of extending to John Wallach, Founder and President of Seeds of Peace, an invitation to attend the Convention and make such communications as pleases him.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Nutting.

Senator NUTTING: Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I have known Henry Black all my life. He was especially proud of the fact that his farm, Briarcliff Farm, sold breeding stock to farmers virtually in every state in the United States. His breeding stock was known all over the world. Some of the premiere sires in the Jersey breed in the world came from his farm. I think it's a very big, big loss. I think it's also very sad that the last animals had left his farm just a few months ago. He'll be greatly missed. Thanks.

ADOPTED.

Under suspension of the Rules, ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.
