

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
February 9, 2006

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Reverend Thomas Chittick of Trinity Lutheran Church in Westbrook.

REVEREND CHITTICK: Good morning. Let us be in the spirit of prayer. Imagine if you will a glass prism and the light that it sparkles on a room, rainbow colors. Let us in that image think and pray for the many faces of people that make up Maine. For those who go down to the sea in ships and those who fell trees in the far north woods. For those who sell cars or run little stores. For others who fill potholes or manage large factories. For those who teach and those who nurse and those who drive cabs and those who guide tourists. For builders, for doctors, for artists, for welders, for musicians, for farmers, and for computer technicians. For all of these faces which make up the people that we who govern would cherish their work and protect their hard labor. Help us, great God, to discern what is best for the good of all people and the grand State of Maine. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours, now and forever. Let the people say, Amen.

Doctor of the day, Dr. Samuel Cady of Yarmouth.

ORDERS

Joint Order

Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Officer Kevin Battle, of the South Portland Police Department, on his being named 2005 Officer of the Year. Officer Battle was honored for thoroughly following up on complaints and tenaciously investigating criminal activity. His efforts have resulted in a number of successfully solved cases this past year. A member of the department's Crisis Intervention Team, Officer Battle has been a member of the force since 1985. We extend our congratulations to Officer Battle on his receiving this honor;
SLS 931

Sponsored by Senator BROMLEY of Cumberland.
Cosponsored by Representatives: BLISS of South Portland, EBERLE of South Portland, GLYNN of South Portland.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Bromley.

Senator BROMLEY: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. I'm very honored today to be able to rise and give you a little bit of information about Officer Kevin Battle. I first met him in 1998 when I was knocking on doors in his neighborhood. We had a little conversation about the community that we loved and after we talked for just a few minutes he asked me for a favor, which I thought was interesting. He told me about a call he'd had just a couple of days before where a constituent, a veteran actually, had had a flag that he flew in his yard stolen from him. Officer Battle had responded to that call and we all knew that the culprits probably would not be caught and certainly the flag wouldn't be returned. He asked me if I knew about how you might get a flag like that. Well, I did and I got the flag and I called Officer Battle and said I'd got a flag for our constituent, our friend, and would he like to give it to him. He said, 'No, you can give it to him, I just wanted to make sure that he gets it.' Officer Battle is a great cop. The department and the community know that. He responds to calls as a law enforcement officer, but I know he also responds to calls as a human being, one who cares deeply about the people in our community. He's a public servant of the best sort, and not just on the clock. He's a community volunteer and does a myriad of things in addition to doing all the things to protect us and serve us during his time on the clock. When I spoke to the Chief about Officer Battle he said there was one thing that he could be a little better at. One learning curve that he has. He said he's not very good at standing up to gratitude and praise. It is my honor to be able to offer these few words on the record and Kevin Battle is one of South Portland's finest. I know that he stands as proxy for many of the men and women like him in your communities. Thank you, Madame President.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes in the rear of the chamber Officer Kevin Battle of the South Portland Police Department. Would he please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate.

For 25 years they have taken in youth from all over the state and it's been there to provide safe and supportive emergency shelter and services.
