Please accept this letter as the report of the findings of the Joint Standing Committee on Insurance and Financial Services from its review and evaluation of the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation under the State Government Evaluation Act, Title 3 Maine Revised Statutes, chapter 35.

The committee finds that the Administrative Services Division, Bureau of Consumer Credit Protection, Bureau of Financial Institutions, Bureau of Insurance and Office of Securities within the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation are operating effectively within their statutory authority. The review of the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation is done in conjunction with the Joint Standing Committee on Labor, Commerce, Research and Economic Development. Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Decal Gymnastics, of Waterville, which in the autumn of 2015 raised more than $3,000 for the Travis Mills Foundation, a nonprofit organization formed to benefit and assist wounded and injured veterans and their families. Decal Gymnastics is owned and operated by Mrs. Carol Hamilton Brewer and is named after her daughters, Delani, Carlee and Alexis, who all play important roles in the business. It had its first permanent home in Dover-Foxcroft and now has four sites located in Waterville, Augusta, Skowhegan and Wilton. Over the years, thousands of boys and girls of all ages have benefited from its classes, and its gymnasts have been recognized as the best in New England for their respective ages and levels. In 2014, the Waterville YMCA and Decal Gymnastics were recognized by USA Gymnastics Maine as JO Club of the Year. We extend to Decal Gymnastics our congratulations and best wishes;

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I am thrilled to rise before you today to recognize a successful business located in my district. Decal Gymnastics started 25 years ago by its owner, Carol Hamilton Brewer, and Decal Gymnastics first opened in Dover-Foxcroft and has since expanded the company into four sites: Waterville, Augusta, Skowhegan, and Wilton. Over the years of operation countless boys and girls, ranging from only a few months old to adulthood, have attended classes at these four sites. The programs offered focus on self-confidence and discipline through lessons and training in coordination, flexibility, balance, and strength. Recently Decal Gymnastics received the Count of Kindness award given by the International Gymnastics Camp. The award is given to programs that promote positive role models and that ensure, through their classes, that students feel a sense of belonging. In the autumn of 2015 Decal Gymnastics raised more than $3,000 for the Travis Mills Foundation, a non-profit organization formed to benefit and assist wounded and injured veterans and their families. Mrs. Hamilton, along with her daughters, knows the importance of community service and it is for this reason and many more that I am thrilled to be able to recognize them today. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Carol Hamilton; her daughters, Delani Sher and Alexis Evans; and Whitney Blanchett. They are accompanied by the gymnasts from Decal Gymnastics who are located in the gallery. Would they all please stand and accept the greetings of the Senate.

Peter G. Thompson, of Readfield, who has received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce. This award is given to a business professional with a legacy of community involvement. Mr. Thompson served as mayor of Augusta for 4 consecutive terms. He later served as president and chief executive officer of the chamber. Much of the success in the Kennebec Valley region is a result of his leadership. We extend to Mr. Thompson our congratulations and best wishes;

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Katz.

Senator KATZ: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I rise to honor Peter Thompson, who is with us today. My good friend from Piscataquis, Senator Davis, has reminded me that Mr. Thompson is actually from Guilford originally, but he spent most of his adult life here in the Kennebec Valley. It's particularly good for me to be able to recognize one of my mentors. Peter did serve as Mayor of Augusta for eight years and for many years as President and CEO of the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce. My guess is that Peter feels like a pretty lucky person when he drives around this community because he can see his handiwork almost wherever he would go. Whether it's the expansive development of the University of Maine at Augusta, the Augusta Commerce Center, the Augusta Marketplace, or the new regional hospital, Peter Thompson's fingerprints are all over that. I know we are all proud of people who live in our own communities, but I couldn't be more proud to call Peter Thompson my friend and have the honor to recognize him here today, Mr. President. Thank you.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber today Peter Thompson of Readfield and Guilford. Would he please rise and accept the greetings of the Senate.

Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Rocky's Stove Shoppe, of Augusta, which has been named the 2016 Small Business of the Year by the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce. The business, owned and operated by Rocky and Barbara Gaslin, has 9 full-time employees and sells and services all brands of wood, pellet and gas stoves. Over its 35 years of operation, the business has served over 100,000 customers. In that time, Mr. and Mrs. Gaslin have also supported many charitable organizations and coached youth sports. We extend to everyone at Rocky's Stove Shoppe our congratulations and best wishes;

SLS 863

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Katz.

Senator KATZ: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, we all have those small businesses in our community which are the backbone of our economy and Rocky's Stove Shoppe is certainly one of those. I've known Rocky for many, many years and he has been one of those great employers in Augusta. Beyond that, Rocky's contributions to the community have been important and perhaps the one that most people are proud of is the fact that he has been, or was, the coach of the Cony Girls Softball Team for many, many years. If we can all remember back to that great State Class A Championship season of Cony, Rocky was the coach of that team. If I might just take a moment of personal privilege, Mr. President, Rocky is also here this morning with his father-in-law, Duke Dulac, Barbara's dad. Duke is king of a legend around here as well. He was a local barber for decades. You may remember him from the time that he started the Duke's Barber Poll. It was the only entity in the entire state of Maine that correctly predicted that James Longley was going to win the Governorship many years ago and then for decades his polling was by far the most accurate polling in the state of Maine. It slipped a bit at the end. I do recall towards the end I got to vote more than once on occasion when I would go to get a haircut, but the Duke's Barber Poll was famous and I'm very proud to have him here today as well. Just one other thing about Duke's Barber Shop, and this is, to me, the epitome of living in the state of Maine, one time I went to Duke's to get my haircut and the person right before me was Jock McKernan and the person who came right after me was Dan Waltham. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber today Rocky Gaslin; his daughter, Ashley Gaslin; and his father-in-law, Duke Dulac, all of Augusta. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Senate.

Senator KATZ: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, thank you for your patience as we go through these today. We all have Land Trust in our districts that we are very thankful for the work of the volunteers. I've got to think that we've got one of the best right here in Kennebec County. When you think of the Vaughan Wood's Project, the Vassalboro Wildlife Habitat, the Horseshoe Island Preserve, and the list goes on and on and on, their work will not only benefit us but many generations to come in the best tradition of Land Trust and they were also real leaders and fighting hard to preserve the Lands for Maine's Future program. I am so proud to have them here in our community and so appropriate that they would be recognized for community service by the Chamber. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber today Theresa Kerchner, Executive Director of the Kennebec Land Trust, and Sue Bell, Director of the Kennebec Land Trust.
