

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
May 17, 2005

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Pastor Bruce P. Burnham of the Alfred Parish Church, Congregational, UCC and the North Saco Congregational Christian Church, UCC of Saco.

PASTOR BURNHAM: Thank you. Good morning. May we be in the attitude of prayer.

Loving Creator of all that I can see and far beyond what mind can imagine, these few gathered here have been elected to work out the aspirations, hopes, and dreams of the many in the State of Maine. For their willingness to serve in this creative capacity, I thank You. My prayer for all who are called to serve is that each might have eyes opening to the way You see our world, ears hearing with clarity and compassion the words of constituents and colleagues, mouths speaking words of wisdom and truth, hands reaching out to offer help and hope, and hearts serving as a conduit for all the goodness and wellbeing that comes from having Your divine vision of how wonderful this world can be at the very center of all that is to be done. May it be that, when this day draws to a close, everyone that serves in this chamber, be they Senator or staff member and indeed all who serve this beautiful state which You offer for our living and fulfillment, might hear the words, 'Well done, good and faithful servant.' All this is offered to the glory of Your name, oh God. Amen.

Doctor of the day, Dr. Stephen Sears of Farmingdale.

Reading of the Journal of Monday, May 16, 2005.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Andrews.

Senator ANDREWS: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. I would ask all of you at some time this week to pause and remember all the men and women of the State of Maine and the nation who have made the supreme sacrifice. Just like the men and women who gave their life on September 11th, these are ordinary men and women who serve you and the people of Maine. They go to work like you and I every day but they don't come home, like my husband, Trooper Charles Black, who was not even on duty the day he gave his life but was going to court. Please join others on Thursday, May 19th, at the Maine Law Enforcement Memorial to recognize all these brave individuals in the State of Maine who gave their all. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Snowe-Mello.

Senator SNOWE-MELLO: Thank you, Madame President. I stand here today to ask you not to support the majority report on L.D. 546. Contractors in Maine are required to pay predetermined wages and benefits on state taxpayer financed construction projects. The Bureau of Labor Standards surveys contractors within a geographical area to come up with an average wage and benefit package by trade. That average becomes the prevailing wage construction workers are to be paid on state projects. L.D. 546 turns the concept of prevailing benefits on its ear. It amends the prevailing wage statute by selling an artificial floor for the value of prevailing health insurance benefits. Basically, it requires the assumption that all contractors provide Dirigo-like health insurance benefits. Current estimates placed that prevailing rate for health insurance at an additional $2.45 per hour on average. Unfortunately, nothing in the amendment says that the additional $2.45 per hour will be used to purchase health insurance, nor is it possible to determine how many of these workers, who don't get health insurance through their employers, have access to health insurance through a spouse or simply choose not to carry health insurance coverage. In their testimony in support of this amendment, the Bureau of General Services said that one solution was to increase the health insurance component of the benefit rate by creating a minimum rate that would allow workers to purchase health insurance. If the goal is to reduce the amount of working uninsured, as the bill's sponsors claim, this bill certainly does not do that. It merely inflates the hourly wage of employees working on taxpayer-financed projects with no requirement that the additional pay be used towards purchasing health insurance. This amendment increases the cost of state funded construction projects; meaning fewer roads, fewer bridges, and fewer schools for the taxpayer dollars. Maine simply cannot afford it. The sponsor's goal was to reduce the number of uninsured workers. If this amendment actually accomplished that I would be the first to support it. I hope you will join me in voting no on L.D. 546. Thank you very much.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Bartlett.

Senator BARTLETT: Thank you, Madame President. I rise in support of this bill for a couple of reasons. To start off, I'd like to tell you exactly what this bill doesn't do. Originally this bill was designed to provide mandate Dirigo-style health insurance for anyone who does contracting with the State of Maine. It also required apprenticeship programs for anyone who is doing contracts with the State of Maine. We decided, in committee, that this was not workable. That mandate could end up being too heavy handed and may not, ultimately, lead to the goal we were trying to achieve, which is to expand access to health insurance. We decided to compromise with something to make sure that a company does not receive a competitive advantage by not providing health insurance. Right now many contractors provide excellent benefits, including health insurance equal to or exceeding what Dirigo provides. However, there are a few contractors who do not. They can undercut those who do provide health insurance because they don't have that additional expense. The purpose of this bill, as it stands, is very simple. It says, 'You will not receive a competitive advantage by avoiding the obligation of providing health insurance to your employees.' We think that is a good use of state dollars. It's simpler than saying we won't contract with anybody who doesn't provide health insurance. We understand there are a lot of contractors who have only one or two contracts with the State of Maine, and not seeking to over reach in what we were trying to accomplish, we thought this was a way just to make sure we eliminate the competitive edge. That's what this bill is about and I urge you to support it.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Strimling.

Senator STRIMLING: Thank you, Madame President. I would just reiterate what the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Bartlett, just said. This bill is only about leveling the playing field for businesses because currently one business can compete, and because they don't pay for health care, they get a better advantage when they are competing for the state jobs. What we are trying to do is level the playing field. This is a pro-business bill in trying to deal with the competitive nature out there. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Snowe-Mello.

Senator SNOWE-MELLO: Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I need to remind you of what the cost would be to the Department of Transportation, which estimates the range of $13 million to $26 million additional annual highway fund costs. Let me reiterate. Maine cannot afford this. This is not a business bill. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Franklin, Senator Woodcock.

Senator WOODCOCK: Thank you, Madame President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I applaud the notion of the good Senator from Cumberland, Senator Strimling, of what is pro-business and what is not pro-business. Once again, we may have to disagree on that definition. Thank you.

On motion by Senator DAVIS of Piscataquis, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is the motion by the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Strimling to Accept the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended Report. A Roll Call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Hancock, Senator Damon.

Senator DAMON: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. This is simply a technical change to this particular bill in that it will allow both the Transportation Committee and the Utilities and Energy Committee to have input and jurisdiction over pending legislation to come before this body. It is being funded, in part, by the Transportation budget and it's only fair and appropriate that the Transportation Committee be a part of that effort as well. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Snowe-Mello.

Senator SNOWE-MELLO: Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I ask you to vote against the motion that is pending on the floor and support the minority report on L.D. 272. The day has arrived when you all can rest easy, but you have to admit that fitness centers that encourage people really believe in this. I hope that you will be able to support this bill.

I know that we have come a long way towards eliminating sex discrimination in our state. That is a good thing. I urge you not to view the desire of some women to exercise in a safe and comfortable environment, out of the gaze of the opposite sex, as a form of discrimination. Earlier this session we heard compelling testimony from many women who simply would not join a health or fitness facility if men were going to be present at that facility. Some of these women join a fitness center at the advise of their physicians. Others simply do it out of an interest to get in shape. Some women, I would hope, might even be motivated by our own Governor's recent proclamation of Maine Public Health Week with the theme of empowering Maine's people to live stronger and longer. Taking away the only safe and comfortable environment for exercise many of these women have ever known would not exactly be empowering them to live stronger and longer would it?

In Wisconsin legal action was forced by a single individual who filed lawsuits against 173 Curves for Women facilities in that state. The man filing the lawsuit claimed the presence of women only fitness centers violated Wisconsin's anti-discrimination laws. With merely 100 Curves for Women in Maine, and more sprouting up, Maine is fertile ground for frivolous lawsuits such as Wisconsin has dealt with.

I recognize that Wisconsin's anti-discrimination laws are different from Maine's and L.D. 272 is written to specifically address Maine's anti-discrimination law. The Wisconsin Senate did not have a problem excluding from their anti-discrimination laws businesses that provide services or facilities designed to assist patrons in physical exercise, in weight control, or in figure development. The Governor in that state, Governor Doyle, a Democrat, when signing Wisconsin's bill into law said that he believes governments should do everything they can to encourage physical fitness. He went on to say, 'This bill will encourage women to lead healthy lives and to exercise by offering a supportive environment.' Alaska, Colorado, Hawaii, Illinois, New Jersey, Tennessee, and Massachusetts all joined Wisconsin in allowing fitness centers to be single sex. Each of these states protected the single sex fitness clubs without limiting the choice of their citizens.

There will continue to be fitness clubs that have both male and female members for those who prefer to exercise in the company of the opposite sex. For those who would not exercise except in the privacy provided by single sex clubs, like Curves, we need to protect their rights to exercise in privacy. The Maine legislature's always stressed how important fitness and health is for people in Maine. Remember, these ladies attend a fitness center because they are striving for good health and a fit body. Ladies and gentlemen, I believe that this bill goes a long way endorsing that all of Maine's citizens get on the road to good health and strong bodies. Thank you.

On further motion by same Senator, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Hobbs.

Senator HOBBS: Thank you, Madame President and members of the Senate. When I decided to run for the Maine Legislature for the third time last February and mid-March, I never thought that I would debating a bill called 'Curves' on my 54th birthday. I never thought I would be because, for one thing, when you're getting up in age and you're just re-subscribed after a three-year membership to AARP, the idea of fitness begins to come into play. This bill is more about whether or not the good Senator from Piscataquis, Senator Davis, or myself could go down to the local Curves and work out like we probably should.

This bill brings me back to the fact that back in the 1970's, when I served in the other body, discrimination laws in Maine were enacted and sex discrimination was prohibited with the enactment of the Maine Human Rights Act. The reason it was enacted was to ensure that women were not excluded, ironically, from fitness centers, from gyms, from sports teams, from golf clubs, and other facilities for no reason other than their sex. I remember when I was asked in 1977 whether I wanted to become a member of the Elks. Of course, having a little political ambition and being a conscience of doing the right thing, the P.C. thing, I respectfully declined because they only accepted men and no women. That's not the case any more. The club is now very actively involved with women members. Arguments abounded about this back then, in the 1970's, and they are similar today in that the arguments were that some places should just be for men. I'm going back and using the arguments they used against the women in those days. They said that it would be more comfortable not to have women around. Without women, men didn't have to have to watch what they said or what they did and how they said it. That's the problem with this bill. It's not about just exercising, because quite frankly what the franchises of Curves do in their mission is a good mission and there hasn't been any issues with men trying to get into their clubs and joining.

The Maine Human Rights Commission had not received one complaint from men or women regarding participation and membership in fitness centers, not just this issue, but fitness centers. This bill goes beyond whether or not the good Senator from Piscataquis, Senator Davis, and myself should go to a health club. If this bill passes, we'll be going to an all men's club, probably called Buffs. It goes beyond that. This bill goes to heart of discrimination that went back to what was known under the old days in this country as separate but equal. I don't think we need to go back to the Plessy versus Ferguson days.

I respect anyone who votes the other way in bill because there are privacy issues involved. There are women's colleges that are successful in keeping the sanctity of their history and tradition, which I respect. There are cases galore. You would not be considered to be anti-sexual, racial, or whatever you want to call it, discriminating, or be criticized if you vote with the good Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Snowe-Mello, but I want you to just think about all those battles that were fought in the 1970's to allow women into all these clubs and now, with one bill, we revert back to the 1970's. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Plowman.

Senator PLOWMAN: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. This is not an issue about exercise, but it is an issue about privacy and vulnerability. We do have clubs where men and women are now allowed but we have separate shower rooms, we have separate steam rooms, and we have all kinds of separate facilities so that people who are vulnerable and want privacy can access that. We have men and women restrooms here. There are times when I'd like to use the men's room because there are so many women in line, but I wouldn't want to come in and make you feel vulnerable. Women that join Curves join because there is a curtain across the windows and that men are not allowed. When they sit in these incredibly designed machines that are supposed to work with different parts of your body, they are physically vulnerable. Imagine yourselves in the equivalent of the OBGYN chair, with your feet up in stirrups. Do you want the man across the room from you watching you work out your inner and outer thigh? Am I getting graphic enough? Imagine that you weigh 250 or 300 pounds and you have found the only outfit that is big enough to cover you and keep you comfortable while you're trying to get your heart rate into the right range, lose some weight, not come down with diabetes, and you want to go somewhere where you are comfortable and you are not vulnerable. It's not an issue about whether you want to keep men out, it's an issue about what's best for the vulnerable woman sitting there. I've gone to one of those other clubs. I was actually, in the legal terms, assaulted while I was working out because I was vulnerable. The man felt very comfortable coming up and touching me in an inappropriate place. That is vulnerable. I'm not vulnerable at Curves. These women want to work out. They want to be healthy. They're not asking for special privileges. They are just saying, 'Protect me, let me go somewhere where I'm not going to be embarrassed and I can get healthy.' It's written very tightly. If you want a Buffs, please get one and I'll pay. Thank you and just consider the women who are asking you for this. We're not stepping back. We're stepping forward. Things can change without it being a bad thing. It can actually be a good thing. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Piscataquis, Senator Davis.

Senator DAVIS: Thank you, Madame President. I would just like to respond a little bit to my good friend, the Senator from York, Senator Hobbins. When he speaks about advancing years at 54, I urge him to speak for himself. I mean that sincerely having lived several years more than he has. I don't feel advanced in age at all. I would be more than happy to go to any fitness center that is available here in the city or anywhere else with you, sir, and engage in exercise.

I'm not going to get into a great deal on this debate other than I'm going to say to you, Madame President, that the women in my life certainly are different, but they certainly are equal. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Snowe-Mello.

Senator SNOWE-MELLO: Thank you, Madame President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I ask you this, why do we have doctors that only treat women? For the health and welfare of the woman. In Wisconsin, which is a very progressive state in regards to social issues, they passed this bill to allow fitness studios that are just for women. In fact, all over the United States we have fitness studios that are just for men and just for women. The reason why Curves is so successful is because women feel they can exercise in a place where they feel safe. I think that is the word, safe. They can, for a half-an-hour each workout, know that no one is placing judgment on them, on how they look. This allows a lady to exercise in an atmosphere where they encourage a sense of ease. Many ladies who attend the Curves are older women, ladies who are even 84 years old go here because they feel comfortable. They would not go at all if men were there. Many ladies attend Curves are older women that feel self-consciousness. Before Curves they never would have thought of leaving their homes to go exercise. Absolutely never. Now they have the opportunity to be in a place with other women just like them.

I received, as many of you did, tons of letters on this. There were a few letters that stand out. One of them was from a Curves owner that said that she would never have joined a gym with men. She was raised by an abusive father, married an abusive man, and was taken advantage of by her male therapist. She needs the feeling of being safe around women while she exercises. That, ladies and gentlemen, is a very good reason why we need to put this into law. I ask you, are battered shelters gender based? Would a woman be accepted at a battered shelter for men or vice versa? Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Lincoln, Senator Dow.

Senator DOW: Thank you, Madame President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Sometimes we try to pass a law or bill that is bullet proof and that will make it through the courts. I don't know if we can always do that, but I think there are some common sense solutions that the nation has already taken that stand out as solutions to this problem already. I would point to a couple of examples. One of them is the Little League in the United States. You might say, 'What's the Little League got to do with Curves?' Well, the precedent that they have set is what I want to look at. In the old days, Little League was just for boys. Then it became apparent that girls wanted to play and so they allowed girls to play on these Little League teams. Eventually we established girl's softball teams, an equivalent sport. It's not exactly the same, but equivalent. We allowed them to play on these teams, and because we allowed them to have an equivalent sport, they could play on separate teams and they were deemed separate. They did not have the right to play on other teams. I believe that Title 9, when it came into the schools, did the same thing. It elevated women's sports into equality. How can I say just the opposite when I'm talking about Title 9 because take a look at what Title 9 did? When there were no girl's soccer teams, girls were allowed to play on the boy's soccer team. When girl's soccer teams came along, they played on those teams and were not allowed to play on each other's teams. I had a boy in my school that wanted to play field hockey. There was no equivalent boy's sport at that time, so he was allowed to play field hockey on the girl's team. That's anti-discrimination. When lacrosse came along, you had replaced field hockey with a similar and deemed equivalent sport. I believe this is the case here. We have similar and equivalent agencies that we can go to. I could go to the YMCA and workout with the equipment that I want to. Men and women go to those. We have a health facility in my town that men and women go to. The Curves facility is a little bit different in this sense. This equipment is designed for women. It's a little embarrassing for women to be put into some of these uncompromising positions, I understand. I can understand why they don't want me there, but I do have an equivalent place that I can go to, therefore I feel there is no discrimination because of the examples that we are running with in this country already, namely examples from the Little League and from the Title 9 projects. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Bromley.

Senator BROMLEY: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. I asked myself this morning, what is this bill really about? Is it about fitness? Access? I don't think so because these women are already members of Curves. In fact, I'm sure many of you have received letters like I received. Is it about women being afraid to go? I think not, because they are already there. I wondered if it might be about advertising and marketing because we've already named it the Curves Bill. I'm certain there is some benefit to that establishment. I did take a sample of the letters that I got and I called around to fifteen Curves establishments and asked them to explain to me what the problem was. Seven of them didn't know what I was referring to. I had a letter that had their name signed on it and they said, 'Oh, that thing.' All 15 of them said no man had ever come in the door to try to exercise there. My husband and I are going on a fitness regimen as soon as session is over. I talked about going to my local Curves and I said, 'Would you like to go?' He said, 'Are you kidding? Their signs are pink. They are for women. I'd never go there.' I submit that there isn't a problem, that Curves' management has brought this bill, not droves of women. If there were a compelling problem, if the entire gender of women in Maine were grossly overweight and the entire gender of men were not, then I would say we probably ought to have this debate. To pass a sort of exclusion as a feminist, quite frankly, is like we're saying, 'We've got ours and we're going to shut the door.' It doesn't feel good to me. If there were a compelling reason, I would at least be interested in having the debate. My comfort doesn't feel like a compelling reason because if we take men and change that to Native Americans or tall people of color or middle eastern people or whatever we might feel uncomfortable around, it feels very vulnerable and feels like a very slippery slope here. I don't see a compelling reason. There was not a problem demonstrated in the committee. There was not a problem demonstrated in my 15 phone calls. I did not call every Curves establishment, but I did call 15. Every single one of them said a man has never come in wanting to exercise. I would say to you that there is not a compelling problem. In the absence of a compelling problem, I urge you not to take this even somewhat baby step down this slippery slope of exclusion. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Snowe-Mello, requests unanimous consent of the Senate to address the Senate a third time on this matter. Hearing no objection, the Senator may proceed.

Senator SNOWE-MELLO: Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. It might be very true what she just said, but remember there's over 100 Curves fitness studios all over Maine. Many of them have had men call. Many of the Curves have had men call and ask them, point blank, 'Do you allow men?' Of course they have had to say yes. Not one of those men has showed up to join Curves. There one fitness studio that does have a man attend and very few other people attend when this gentleman goes.

I'm going to read you another letter. 'I am a 65 year old woman who has never qualified for body beautiful. At Curves Women's Only I am free to condition this body in a safe, nurturing, and non-judgmental environment. I would never pay membership in a co-ed facility.' It is a problem. Maybe not in the 15 studios the good Senator mentioned, but there is a problem in other studios. That is why this bill was put in. It is not a marketing tool. I really take offence to that. Thank you very much.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Plowman.

Senator PLOWMAN: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. I just want to say that at our Curves we had a man who just wanted to come and watch.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is the motion by the Senator from York, Senator Hobbins to Accept the Majority Ought Not to Pass Report. A Roll Call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later (5/12/05) Assigned matter:

Bill "An Act To Protect Certain Elderly or Incompetent Dependents"

H.P. 795 L.D. 1152
(C "A" H-324)

Tabled - May 12, 2005, by Senator WESTON of Waldo

Pending - PASSAGE TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-324), in concurrence

(In House, May 11, 2005, PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-324).)

(In Senate, May 12, 2005, READ A SECOND TIME.)

On motion by Senator MILLS of Somerset, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Somerset, Senator Mills.

Senator MILLS: Thank you, Madame President and men and women of the Senate. I take issue with this bill for some reasons that will take me just a moment to explain. We currently have a law on the books that makes it a criminal offense, punishable by up to a year in jail, it's a Class D offense, to neglect the care, the health, the safety, or mental welfare of a dependent person who is dependent either because of age, physical or mental disease or disorder, or mental or emotional defect. This law was passed some years ago and it's been on the books for a while. It bothered me when I read the definition of the person who could be subjected to criminal prosecution under this law. It applies to anyone who has assumed a legal duty to care for a dependent person. It goes on to say that a legal duty may be inferred, that is evidence may be created of your duty, if you, the person being prosecuted, has assumed responsibility for the care of the dependent person. In some situations I hadn't any quarrel with this as a statute or as a concept. There are so many situations where you have a person assuming responsibility for the care of a neighbor. You have your CAP agency transporting people. You have parents who have a natural legal duty to care for a child but may not be able to care for that child if that child has a mental illness or has behavioral issues that are out of the control of the parent. The statute says that, in addition to any moral culpability you may have for not taking adequate care of a dependent person, you can be prosecuted by the state if you assume any measure of responsibility for the care of a dependent person and then for some reason fail to continue that care. Maybe you don't show up one day or something else happens while you're under this assumed responsibility.

The bill that lies before us this afternoon is a bill that would enhance the penalty for this crime if there is an intentional or knowing endangerment of a dependent person. The current law says that you are guilty of this crime if you commit it either recklessly or intentionally and it punishes you the same for either violation. The bill that lies before us would enhance the penalty and make you guilty of a felony and subject you to up to 5 years imprisonment if you either intentionally or knowingly subject the dependent person to endangerment.

I know that we have an obligation to have laws on the books that are adequate to protect dependent people. I am deeply concerned that this law could apply to people who have sort of unwittingly assumed, perhaps voluntarily, volunteer duties in the care of someone who is dependent and then finds themselves later subject to a criminal prosecution when they, themselves, are no longer able to continue rendering that care, attention, or visitation. It means that the Good Samaritan that doesn't show up as he or she may have been accustomed to showing up could be subjected to criminal prosecution. This bill makes the current law worse by saying that you could a felon if you neglect and endanger the person knowingly, whatever that means.

I don't know if the committee was given any evidence at all that the current law is somehow inadequate. You can obviously tell that I'm disturbed by the current law and by the number of people that might be subjected to its sanctions. I'm surely disturbed, even more so, by the notion that we would enhance the impact of this law by saying that you could be guilty of a felony just because you volunteered to take care of somebody and then on a given day, knowingly, failed to render assistance that this person might have become dependent upon. I just find it very disturbing that we would punish Good Samaritans for their efforts in taking care of dependent people. You can say, 'Well, the District Attorney or the Attorney General's Office has some discretion about whether to prosecute.' I don't quarrel with that. What I am bothered about is that it gives the state the power to prosecute somebody in a situation where, I think, we should more tightly constrain the power of the state. I'm just disturbed at giving the Attorney General or the D.A.'s offices the power to prosecute cases that might cross over the line to situations that we might recoil at. It's a troublesome bill. I don't understand the need for enhancing this law at this time. At the very least, I would suggest we leave it for another day. That is the reason why I've asked for a roll call and would ask that this amendment to the existing bill be defeated. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Diamond.

Senator DIAMOND: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. It's a pleasure to get up and maybe shed a little more light on this than the good Senator from Somerset, Senator Mills, was able to read into the amendment. First of, it's a unanimous committee report. Nobody at the committee hearing testified against it. The bill was put in by the Attorney General's Office. The reason it was put in is to address a very serious issue and that is elder abuse. It wasn't just an idea that somebody had and decided that they guessed they would throw this bill in. It is a very serious bill for very serious reasons.

The current law, as you know and as you just heard, says it is a Class D crime if you knowingly, intentionally, or recklessly cause the endangerment of the welfare of an elderly or dependent. The amendment says knowingly and intentionally, not by failing to show up at someone's house. Much different. Many of you have heard of the Criminal Law Advisory Commission, CLAC. Not a very appropriate acronym for a very heady group I'm afraid. That is what they are called, CLAC, Criminal Law Advisory Commission. There are some pretty good people on this and they helped write this amendment. In fact, not only did they help write it, most of the writing is their work because they work with our committee as they do the Judiciary Committee, as they do the Health and Human Services Committee, and as they do the Legal and Veterans Affairs Committee. They are very much involved. Who are these people, you say, that would be wanting and advocating for this bill? Well, let's take a look. We have prosecutors in D.A. offices. We have defense attorneys. We have Charles Leadbetter, who is one of the best legal minds, I think, in this state. We have Professor Zarr from the University of Maine Law School consulting with CLAC. Justice Robert Clifford, Justice John Atwood, and Judge William Anderson. We don't take these names lightly, nor do we take what they advise in the committee lightly. They all support this because of the serious issue of abuse. This bill was also supported, because of the neglect and physical abuse that is taking place, by a group that is called the Maine Elder Death Analysis Review Team. These people are very concerned about the existing abuse. Let's see who is on there. We have the Healthcare Crime Unit from the A.G.'s Office, the Department of Corrections, the Chief Medical Examiner, Long Term Care Ombudsman Program, the Bureau of Elderly and Adult Services, the Maine Chiefs of Police, and the State Police. These people deal with this abuse on a regular basis. They are all advocates for this bill, that is why it is a unanimous committee report. Most of the major elder and senior citizen groups advocate for this bill, which is why there was no opposition to the bill.

I have the capability and the information to get into the minutia of all the reasons, all the cases, and all the people who support this and why. I'd be happy to do that, but I can say to you now that this bill is very seriously needed and advocated by those who deal with this abuse and neglect every day. It's not as you heard, that someone might unwittingly do some harm and neglect. It's those who intentionally do it, and it happens way too often. I would urge you to vote for this. We didn't have all of the brilliant legal minds at the committee or advising us, but we had many. I would encourage you to vote for this unanimous committee report, which is taken very seriously. I might also add that this bill was given maybe more consideration than many of the other bills we deal with because of its very nature. No one working on this bill, work session, or public hearing took this lightly, nor do I or any members of my committee. I would urge you to vote for the passage of this bill. Thank you, Madame President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Plowman.

Senator PLOWMAN: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. I appreciate the work that has gone into this bill and I appreciate that it is a unanimous report. However, I would like to pose a question through the Chair.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator may pose her question.

Senator PLOWMAN: Thank you, Madame President. On page 2 of the amendment, paragraph 2, the sentence that reads; 'For purposes of this section, a legal duty maybe inferred if the defendant has assumed responsibility for the care of the dependent person.' At what point, and is this described somewhere in law, is the responsibility taken? What I am thinking of is the gentleman who comes by five nights a week and delivers the Meals from Maine. Has he taken responsibility? Is it my responsibility because I checked in on a brother who's mentally ill and helped him through this week's crisis but next week I feel that he's okay? I'm just asking, at what level, because the word inferred kind of worries me.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator from Penobscot, Senator Plowman poses a question through the Chair to anyone who may wish to answer. The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Diamond.

Senator DIAMOND: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. Thank you for the question. We were reassured on several different fronts that the term legal duty pertained just to that, not to the casual or occasional or the Good Samaritan approach. I have no concerns about that word nor do I have any concerns about its implications because of the reassurance we've had. Again, it wasn't just this area, we were concerned more about making that distinction, as this amendment does, between intentionally and knowingly versus recklessly, which could be someone who was supposed to show up but didn't. That's a whole different category and a whole different bucket of fish, as my good friend might say. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Passage to be Engrossed. A Roll Call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.
