(1-3) the First Congregational Church of Gray, United Church of Christ Maine, which is celebrating its 250th Anniversary this year. In 1774, the church was formed by the Congregational Society as the First Parish church in the settlement of New Boston, which was later incorporated as the Town of Gray in 1778. Throughout its history, the First Congregational Church of Gray has remained a vital part of the town center and activities. It has occupied five buildings in three locations in the village, with the current church in use since 1901. Known affectionately as "the church in the heart of the village," the First Congregational remains a constant, visible symbol of faith and a center of service to the community. The church offers its Parish House building as a meeting place for civic organizations and its own Christian education programs and outreach to the community, including public suppers and participation in community events such as the annual Blueberry Festival, as well as a preschool playground and free creative music and movement class. The church also sponsors and houses the Gray Community Food Pantry, serving families in Gray and surrounding communities. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 1016

Joint Resolution

Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-33) Sharon Barker, of Bangor. Early in her career, Ms. Barker helped manage the Community House, an adult education program in Presque Isle. She went on to work for ten years as a counselor and clinical services coordinator for Family Planning in Bangor. In 1984, she cofounded the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center, and she was the center's president for many years. She served as the first director of the Women's Resource Center at the University of Maine from 1991 until her retirement in 2014. Among the initiatives she oversaw there are the Safe Campus project against sexual assault, the United Sisters mentoring program, pairing college women with high school girls, the Maine Girls' Collaborative, Start Smart salary negotiation workshops for women and the annual "Expanding Your Horizons" conference, which brings 500 middle school girls to campus from all over the State to explore career opportunities in the STEM fields. She received many honors recognizing her work as an advocate for women's rights, including the Mary Hatwood Futrell Award from the National Education Association in 1997, induction into the Maine Women's Hall of Fame in 2009 and the Mary Ann Hartman Award in 2020, among countless other recognitions. Ms. Barker will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;

Joint Resolutions

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-74) Walter Anthony Laqualia, of Scarborough. Mr. Laqualia took his first job as a draftsman at Lincoln Pulp and Paper in Lincoln. He would later purchase Lane Supply Company in Brewer with his close friend and business partner, James Rawcliffe. They successfully operated Lane Supply Company together until they retired and sold the business in 2003. Mr. Laqualia, known for his love of sailing, sailed competitively and held a United States Coast Guard Captain's License. Mr. Laqualia will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of nearly 60 years, Nancy, his family and his friends;

SLS 1974

Sponsored by Senator BRENNER of Cumberland.

Cosponsored by Senator: CARNEY of Cumberland, Representatives: GATTINE of Westbrook, MURPHY of Scarborough, WARREN of Scarborough.

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-75) Marjorie Joan Thompson, of Hollis Center. Early in her working life, Mrs. Thompson was a private secretary to the Civilian Personnel Manager at Fort Belvoir, Virginia while her husband was stationed there. After returning to Maine, she began her career with the United States Postal Service. She worked in several local post offices and retired in 1992. She was a member of the Hollis Center Baptist Church for 72 years, from 1945 to 2017. Mrs. Thompson will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 69 years, Gene, her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;

SLS 1975

Sponsored by Senator INGWERSEN of York.

Cosponsored by Representatives: BLIER of Buxton, CARLOW of Buxton.

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(4-76) Arthur Allen Hayes, of Belfast. Mr. Hayes was a veteran of the United States Navy. In 1960, he entered the Naval Officer Candidate School and, after being commissioned as an Ensign, served as Air Intelligence Officer with VA-86, deploying twice to the Mediterranean on the aircraft carrier USS Independence. In October 1962, he was sent to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, where he served on an admiral's staff during the Cuban Missile Crisis. Civilian life began soon after, with a long career in computers beginning in New York with IBM as a programmer. His career advanced through systems analysis and manufacturing systems in New Jersey with Sandoz Pharmaceuticals and Monroe Calculator and in Connecticut with Royal Business Machines, The Hartford Courant and Pratt and Whitney. He operated a small sign company, The Sign Stop, in Avon, Connecticut, until he returned to Belfast. He remained in the United States Navy Reserve, retiring as a commander. He was a member of the Rotary Club and a Paul Harris Fellow and had perfect attendance for almost 40 years. He also served on a variety of boards and committees in the Morris Plains Presbyterian Church, the West Avon Congregational Church and the First Church in Belfast. Mr. Hayes will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 62 years, Sara, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;

SLS 1976

Sponsored by Senator CURRY of Waldo.

Cosponsored by Representative: DODGE of Belfast.
